Directions to New Quarter Park

From Interstate 64: Take exit 242B (Yorktown - Colonial Parkway - Water Country USA) to Rt. 199. Stay on Rt. 199 until the Colonial Parkway's intersection. Enter Colonial Parkway towards Williamsburg (west). Exit off the Colonial Parkway at the Queens Lake intersection. Turn right onto West Queens Drive for about 200 feet. Make an immediate left-hand turn onto Lakeshead Drive (the first street on the left) and follow this road until you reach the park entrance.

From Route 143: At the Rt. 143 - Penniman Road traffic light, turn east onto Penniman Road (Magruder Elementary School is on the corner). Turn left onto Hubbard Lane (the first street on your left). After you go under the overpass, make an immediate right-hand turn onto Lakeshead Drive and follow this road until you reach the park entrance.

About the York County Historical Museum

The York County Historical Museum (a non-profit organization) is committed to advancing the knowledge and understanding of the history of York County and the Town of York through the preservation and presentation of historical artifacts in a museum. The Yorktown Historical Museum is located in the lower level of York Hall (the former Courthouse) at the corner of Main and Ballard Streets. View artifacts from Yorktown's past including Native American tools, Colonial Yorktown, Revolutionary and Civil War, and 20th Century. Under the guidance of Archeologist Hank Lutton, volunteers continue work on artifacts from the Chiskiack Watch Artifact Collection. We welcome the application of individuals to become members of the Friends of the Museum to advise and assist in advancing the Mission of the Museum. Responsibilities of the Friends of the Museum include:

- Volunteering personal time in support of the museum
- Talking to friends, business owners and organizations about the museum
- Soliciting financial support for the museum
- Soliciting historical artifacts for the museum
- Promoting LEGACY donations to the museum
